2014-12-16 22:24:42	Was a great instructor always helped when needed This professor got off topic some but overall was a good English teacher.
2014-12-17 11:26:16	Constantly tested on words that were not reviewed in the book or in class. All class is in sign language even instructions for homework and testing. This is only the second year ASL class. I did not understand some of the instructions and had to record them and have someone else interpret. Also, we weren't allowed to ask him questions on assignments that we missed. We have to ask fellow students. The professor should be available to let us know what homework we missed.

2014-12-16 15:54:07	I felt that I wasn't learning about English, so much as Ms. Higgins opinion on English. Also she didn't give us enough examples of what she would like to see in our paper, or really expectations throughout the year. I think there were some in her syllabus, but they felt as if she did not want to even be in the class and you could tell. She explained assignments well enough, but what she said was what she had written on the paper she gave us. I just feel like there could be improvements all around.
2014-12-16 22:19:15	This professor was my best history teacher I have ever had.
2014-12-11 17:43:48	The class was very direct to the point.
2014-12-11 22:06:43	my teacher is a very nice guy and helping me and other students too also learning lot about classes.
2014-12-12 11:01:27	Mr. Logsdon is a great instructor, I was very nervous about taking this class and after having his class he gave us tools to help us relax and its ok to be nervous when giving a speech. The course itself was very awesome! I learned alot about public speaking. Although 1 negative I have to say is I do not agree with having to pay out of district costs when we attend class in San Angelo.
