FLIP YOUR FOCUS

HALF-DAY WORKSHOP

Lean in and learn how flipping your focus will help you build relationships to strengthen your nonprofit organization!

There is power in putting people first! In a busy world where we are all doing our best to be our best, putting people first is something that can be unintentionally forgotten. You have to hit pause and truly evaluate what your personal and professional goals are. Ask yourself, what has been most important to you, and what should be most important? Attend this half-day workshop with guest speaker, Julie Schniers, who will help you to learn to FLIP YOUR FOCUS and improve your relationship-building skills to improve your organization one relationship at a time.
